USHAK RUG

Oushak rugs, renowned since the 15th century, are woven in Anatolia, particularly in the Uşak region. These rugs, once adorning Ottoman palaces, are known for their refined patterns and soft color palettes. Typically, pastel tones, cream, pale blue, gold and earthy hues are used.

Their designs often feature geometric forms, floral motifs and stylized leaf patterns. One of the most striking features of Oushak rug is their large, bold designs. Woven with wool and sometimes silk fibers, these rugs are celebrated for their durability and elegance.

Complementing both traditional and modern interiors, Oushak rugs bring warmth and a sophisticated ambiance to any space.

Turkish Towel: From Tradition to Modern Living

The Turkish towel, or peshtemal, is a heritage of Anatolia's centuries-old weaving tradition. Known for its lightweight, soft, and durable texture, this special fabric was originally used as a fine cotton towel in Turkish baths. Today, peshtemals offer versatile use in a variety of settings, from kitchens to beaches, bathrooms to picnics.

Made from 100% natural cotton, Turkish towels are eco-friendly, quick-drying, and space-saving thanks to their fine texture. With modern designs and a variety of colors, traditional peshtemals blend functionality and aesthetics to suit your lifestyle. They are also a thoughtful and elegant gift option.
