THE STORY OF IOLE
In ancient times, Iole was the beautiful young daughter of Eurytus, King of Oechalia. At that period, there was a tradition which the young daughters of the king wash their hair with a special recipe including olive oil. Therefore, her hair beauty was known to come from the olive oil originated Aegean Region. It was time for Iole to marry and the person who can beat her father and brothers in archery contest would marry her.

Feeling the strongest love to Beautiful Iole, Heracles was going to win the contest. Sadly, this love did not get the approval of the King so he stopped the contest to end this love.
